12. The Rules of the Society may be altered, but no alteration shall be made except at a General Meeting and by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting, and unless notice of the proposed alteration has been stated on the notice calling the Meeting.

REPORT OF THE EVENTS OF THE YEAR

1913—1914.

The year has been a comparatively uneventful one, and there are few changes to report.

Mr. Welsh has felt compelled by reason of delicate health to resign his post of Tutor, to the great grief of all those who were intimately associated with him. Fortunately he still retains his post of Mathematical Lecturer, and has consented to become an Assistant Tutor; consequently we know that the interests of the mathematical and engineering students will be well attended to. Mr. Elliott, our History Lecturer, has been made a Tutor.

The freshmen of last October were rather an uninteresting lot, though of course there were exceptions. There were a number of quite good rowing men, but the number of recruits to our field sports were very few indeed, and none of these of real excellence. As our strength lay for the most part in third-year men, it is not a happy look-out for the coming year.

The putting down of the new system of drainage, begun in the Long of 1912, was happily completed last year. We are compelled every vacation to have the College patrolled during the night, as the "militants" in the Eastern Counties are very active.

The serious illness of Mrs. Morgan during the winter months caused us all much anxiety, and her recovery was a great relief to her numerous friends.

The windows in memory of the late Master are now in Cambridge, and will be put up forthwith. The improvements in the decoration of the Hall, for which he left money, will be taken in hand this Long. Nothing in the nature of radical changes will be made.

During the year the Dean has provided us with a series of preachers in Chapel of exceptional excellence, from the Dean of St. Paul's to himself.

Obituary. Henry Minshull Stockdale, J.P., of Mears Ashby, Northants, died early in October, 1913, at the age of 91. His family has long been connected with Jesus College, and two of his sons were here in the early eighties. He was a Deputy-Lieutenant for the county, and also a Lieutenant of the old Volunteers, and was one of those who attended the King's Levée in 1911 for officers who joined the forces before 1860. As his commission dated from 1853, he was probably the oldest man holding a commission.

The Rev. C. L. Banister, late of Bishamston Vicarage, Pershore, died at the beginning of June, 1914.

Franklin Marten Rudd died in August, 1913, at the early age of 43, after a long and painful illness borne with the pluck and cheerfulness which were so characteristic of him. Before coming up to Jesus College in 1891, he had been for some years in South Africa, and with his father, Mr. C. D. Rudd, accompanied the first expedition to Mashonaland when the concessions which laid the foundation of Rhodesia were obtained. After leaving Cambridge he returned to Johannesburg, and was engaged there in business at the time of the Jameson Raid, in which he took an active part. In later years he settled in London, and his early death came as a blow to his many friends, old Jesus men of all years and other members of the New Oxford and Cambridge Club, with whom he was deservedly most popular.

Rev. E. Hughes, M.A., Rector of Ashwell, Rutland, died in the Michaelmas term, at the age of 61. He had previously held the livings of St. Leonard's, Wallingford and Dingley, Northamptonshire. He was educated at Shrewsbury. At Jesus College he was quite a good rowing man, though overshadowed by his elder brother, Rev. Thomas E. Hughes, who is still with us. The two brothers were strangely alike, so that when the younger first appeared in Chapel, the Chapel Clerk gave him a seat among the senior men. He was also mistaken for his elder brother by many of the senior men themselves. His elder brother was called 'Tommy,' and naturally he was called 'Young Tommy.' His son is a freshman exhibitioner of the College.

News has reached England by cable that George H. Rhodes has died in Australia, about the middle of June, of heart disease. He resided in Jesus College, 1881-1883.

A promising, but delicate undergraduate, L. S. Mackie, died on November 12th, 1913. He had miserable health all the previous year, when he was a freshman.

Fellowships. H. S. Jones, B.A., who had previously been appointed one of the two chief assistants at the Royal Observatory, was elected to a Fellowship last Michaelmas term. He is being sent out to Minsk, Russia, in charge of the expedition to make observations on the eclipse of the sun.

Honours. In 1913, First Classes were obtained as follows: Mathematical Tripos, Part I, A. F. Akhurst and E. G. Myddelton; Part II, C. E. Jones (with distinction); Classical, Part I, O. V. Guy, F. Hardwick and W. R. Taylor; Natural Science, Part I, H. D. McIlroy; Mediæval and Modern Languages, E. M. Aron with distinction in spoken Spanish. Aron was the first student who has obtained a first class in Spanish. He had previously won the same distinctions in German.

Francis Shillington Scales, M.A., M.D. was awarded the Raymond Horton Smith Prize for his Thesis on "The electro-cardiac diagram as an aid to diagnosis."

A. K. Gray, B.A., son of the Master, was honourably mentioned for the Harness Prize.

H. D. Barnard, who last term was elected Secretary of the Union, was this term elected Vice-President without opposition. At the election in the Michaelmas term J. C. Holmes, B.A., easily headed the poll for Members of Committee.

H. D. L. Minton was elected an Associate of the C. U. Philosophical Society while still an undergraduate.

The Fothergill gold medal of the Medical Society of London for 1914 was awarded to John George Adami, F.R.S., M.D., late Fellow, for his work on Pathology and its application to practical medicine and surgery.

The Hon. Thomas Henry Watson, B.A., LL.B., was, on December 12, 1913, elected M.P. for South Lanarkshire after a very hard fight. He is a Unionist.

In March, 1914, Frank Gordon Breed and Elliott John Hodgson won Bell Scholarships.

Mr. Elliott is again examining for the Historical Tripos.

C. W. G. Eady was thirty-sixth in the Indian Civil Service Competition, and has been given a post in the India Office in London.

Scholarships. The following were elected to Entrance Scholarships last December:—H. O. Lee, Charterhouse; M. P. Charlesworth, Birkenhead; R. B. Turner, Charterhouse; C. L. Tottenham, Woodbridge; R. Lang, Aske's School, Hattham; M. A. Murray, Haileybury; W. F. Plummer, Latymer Upper. R. B. Turner is a son of B. D. Turner, late Fellow.

F. C. Gentry, King's School, and K. S. Chandler, Leys, were elected to Exhibitions.

The Frank Allhusen prize was awarded to H. V. Parker, B.A.

Degrees. T. W. Crafer and A. Nairne have taken D.D. degrees; B. A. I. Peters, M.D.; W. K. L. Clarke, A. C. Cooper-Marsdin, and A. Nairne, B.D.; R. M. Vick, M.C.; H. W. Barnes, F. J. Thorne, and E. J. Bradley, M.B., B.C.; and I. P. H. Davies and H. J. Shields, M.B., and 21 members of the College have taken M.A.

The number of Divinity degrees is notable. The degree of M.C. is a very difficult one to obtain, being given only to those who are really Masters in Surgery. The last Jesus man to gain this degree was Bernard Pitts, Consulting Surgeon to St. Thomas' Hospital, well known to the older members of our Society.

Appointments. Mr. Ephraim Levine, M.A., formerly scholar of the College, who recently took first classes in Oriental Languages and Theology, has been appointed minister of the St. John's Wood Synagogue, one of the principal Jewish congregations in London. His appointment is highly praised in the SUNDAY TIMES in their weekly article entitled The Week in Jewry.

Rev. H. E. Wynn, M.A., has been appointed Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of Sheffield.

Dr. F. Shillington Scales has for some time now had full charge of the X-ray and Radium Department of Addenbrooke's Hospital.

Books. During the past year our College has contributed four works of real importance to Theology. First among these in order of time, and perhaps also of merit, is Professor Nairne's Epistle of Priesthood. This is a disquisition on the Epistle to the Hebrews, and for its scholarship, insight and wide choice of illustration will rank high among the books on this most difficult of Epistles. For this admirable piece of work the University gave the author the degree of B.D., and the D.D. was given soon after for a very compact and erudite work entitled The Faith of the Gospels, which forms part of the Layman's Library, projected by Professors Burkitt and Newson.

Mr. Crafer has obtained his D.D. degree by a very learned attempt to reconstruct the work of Porphyry, the great literary opponent of Christianity, in which he breaks a lance with no less redoubtable a champion than Dr. Harnack.

Scarcely less erudite is Mr. W. K. Lowther Clarke's, B.D., thesis on St. Basil the Great, which no future student of Early Monasticism will be able to disregard. Curiously enough a fitting companion to this work is Canon Cooper-Marsdin's, B.D., thesis, The History of the Islands of the Serins; The Monastery Saints and Theologians of St. Honorat. This monastery attained to much fame in the fifth century, and the present book fills up a great gap in our Church Histories. The reviews of all these works have been most favourable. It says something for the Theological School of so small a College that out of thirty-three D.D. degrees awarded for a thesis in the last ten years seven have been given to Jesus men, all old pupils of the present Dean.

The Athenian Empire and the Great Illusion, by E. M. W. Tillyard, B.A., Fellow of Jesus College. This interesting little essay won the Garton Prize offered by the Cambridge University War and Peace Society. In it he endeavours to show that war does not pay, neither does trade follow the flag. Whether one agrees with him or not, one must admire his careful research, especially in the distribution of Athenian pottery throughout the Greek world. Mr. Tillyard is still busily engaged in photographing and classifying the Deepdene Collection of Greek vases.

J. M. Edmunds has done some most important classical research, of which we have not got particulars at the time of going to press.

The River. Jesus rowing during the past year has been in a satisfactory state. We had two light fours. The first did not get quite together, although it won a heat. The second showed a high standard of merit, and in the final heat was only just beaten by Third Trinity, which contained the stroke and President of the University Crew. In the Colquhouns we sent in a large entry, and R. Gould survived to the final heat, losing only on the post to Ivor Day of Lady Margaret.

In the Lents the first boat regained the headship from First Trinity and the other boats went up. Gould and Oldham won the Lowe Double Sculls, and we were also in the final heat of the Clinker Fours.

In the "May" races our first boat quite easily retained the headship, our second boat gained a place at the expense of Trinity Hall's first boat, and our third boat went down to St. Catherine's first boat, which was coached by a Jesus man. Our first boat is a bit rough, but powerful, with a better leg drive than ever, thanks to Eric Fairbairn's careful coaching. If it improves further it should be the most formidable of English crews for the Grand at Henley. No club has had the luck to be so often in the final or the misfortune to win so seldom.

The crews were :

FIRST BOAT.

A. C. Bell
R. Gould
C. O. Fairbairn
K. Atkin
P. C. Livingston
J. L. Bullough
G. A. Fisher
E. A. S. Oldham (Stroke)
R. J. Wait (Cox)

SECOND BOAT.

H. J. Boyton
G. G. White
J. D. Maitland
J. W. L. Napier
S. J. Tracy
W. N. Hoyte
W. Stobart
R. L. Murray
O. F. Ross

THIRD BOAT.

J. H. Massey
F. W. Bracecamp
I. H. G. Peters
G. E. G. Forman
J. C. Holmes
C. W. Banister
A. G. Cameron
H. Burnaby
K. S. Rudd

There are three very promising freshmen in the second boat, of whom J. W. L. Napier is at present the best. He is a son of a member of our Society and grandson of a former fellow of the College. S. J. Tracy is very powerful and lasts well. If he could only learn to swing, he might attain the highest honours. W. N. Hoyte is a splendid combination of brain and muscle.

Cricket. Our season has been an unsuccessful one. We had quite a good team but were never able to play it, as the pick were third year men, all of whom were at times busy with examinations and some playing in University trials or in Crusader matches. Three second year men got their colours, and one freshman who had played in every match got an extra colour, as Fairbairn, the blue, was never able to assist us except in one match.

THE TEAM.

H. G. Vincent (Captain)	D. Smythe
H. G. Sale (Secretary)	W. J. G. Hands
A. S. Edge	S. M. McCaughey
G. A. Fairbairn	Jack White
A. C. Straker	R. S. Mason
R. Bullen	G. H. A. Wood

Rugby The team was rather a disappointing one, Football. though the forwards, well led by Bullen, were quite a useful lot. Unfortunately all these were third year men, with the exception of Woodroffe, a freshman. Our back division was weak, but improved later on when Penny and Ayre were finally chosen as halves. This year we did not continue our series of wins against Trinity, Oxford, but had to rest content with a draw. There were four scholars and one exhibitor in the team.

TEAM.

H. B. Salmon	Back.
E. C. MacBryan	} Three-quarters.
S. C. Scott
W. G. Higgins
M. J. Morrison
B. P. Ayre	} Halves.
C. J. Penny
R. E. Bullen (Captain)	} Forwards.
J. C. Holmes
G. M. Bradby
I. A. Mack
G. C. Kitching
A. Parke
G. Y. Loveband
L. W. Woodroffe

Association Football. The loss of Evers and Vann made us a little despondent, as no freshmen except Dower turned up really worthy of a trial, and Dower left us at the end of the term. For a long time, too, we were without the services of our excellent backs, but upon their return we made our position in the First League quite secure. Edge, our captain, was unable by reason of ill-health in the October Term, and the calls of the University Team in the Lent Term, to keep goal for us, but fortunately we had a quite first-class substitute in Moffitt. Our forwards were rather a scratch lot, though Sarsby was a powerful hard-working one, and a good goal-getter on his day. Only four colours were therefore given in the forward division, as many were tried but all found wanting. We won our annual match with Exeter Oxford, with some ease.

TEAM.

A. S. Edge (Captain)	}	Goal.
J. P. Moffitt
A. C. Straker	}	Backs.
T. A. C. Rubie
G. E. P. Parmenter	}	Halves.
J. White
A. Low
D. Smythe	}	Forwards.
R. A. Sarsby
L. W. Finlow
H. G. Sale

Hockey. With only four of last year's brilliant team in residence, and only one freshman worthy of his colours, we could not expect to continue head of the League, but we ended high up in the First Division, and therefore had little to complain of except the lack of freshmen. The defence was quite good, Barry Smith probably the best. The forwards were rather uneven, but only the inside-right could be called weak, and he was playing in an unaccustomed place.

Our second team also was not nearly so strong as last year.

TEAM.

W. J. Hands	}	Goal.
W. R. Taylor		Backs.
K. Warren
J. G. Ainley	}	Halves.
W. P. Nevill
F. B. Smith	}	Forwards.
H. D. L. Minton
E. N. Dexter
I. A. Mack
R. H. Corbett (Captain)
H. G. Sale

Lawn Tennis. Our team was not nearly so strong as last year, but did fairly well, though it came out second only in the Second League Competition. St. John's were much too good for us.

FIRST VI.

{ E. N. Dexter (Captain).
{ A. Russell (Secretary).
{ H. A. R. Crookham.
{ H. B. Salmon.
{ F. Barry Smith.
{ I. A. Mack.

Athletics. In the first round of the Inter-Collegiate Competition we beat Trinity Hall by 59½ to 40½ points, but unfortunately were unable to meet Caius in the semi-final, as several men, including our captain and secretary, were ill. The same reason caused us to send an indifferent team against Trinity, Oxford. We drew this match, which was as much as we could hope for.

Our winners were :—

A. Preedy, mile and two miles.
E. M. Davis, hundred yards.
N. C. Hamilton, long jump.
H. W. McMullan, weight.

In addition, G. O. Fairbairn, W. R. C. Green, S. McCaughey, and C. D. Betteridge, won second places.

A. C. Straker (blue) and O. L. Hawkins were president and secretary respectively.

ANNUAL DINNER.

The Sixteenth Annual Dinner took place at the Café Monico on July 17th, 1913, at 8 p.m. The Master of the College presided, and there were 72 present.

The Seventeenth Dinner will take place at the Piccadilly Hotel, W., on July 6th, 1914, at 7.45 for 8 p.m. Mr. Charles Gurdon will take the Chair.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

The Tenth Annual General Meeting of the Society was held at the Café Monico, at 5.30 p.m. on Tuesday, December 9th, 1913. Mr. J. H. H. Goodwin was voted to the Chair. The Hon. Treasurer and Secretary were re-elected for the ensuing year. Messrs. Harold Cox, B. C. Hartley, B. C. Cutter and Rev. C. A. Skinner were elected to the Committee vice Messrs. George Wallace, C. H. Bicknell, H. J. J. Freeman and H. S. Swanston, who retired by rotation. A vote of thanks to the Chairman concluded the proceedings.
