REPORT OF THE EVENTS OF THE YEAR

1911—1912.

These first few lines are written with the last piece of news which the report of the College for 1911-12 will contain. The May races are over and the Jesus crew, after bumping Pembroke somewhat easily the first night, overlapping I. Trinity the second, and fleeing in some terror away from a fast III. Trinity crew the third, pulled themselves together on the last night and defeated I. Trinity in the Long Reach, thus going once more Head of the River. The rowing was of the rough and ready order; three men had never rowed before last October, the men were never properly together, but as everyone plugged in his own fashion as hard as he could, they got the boat along somehow and won the coveted position by sheer pluck and doggedness. Unfortunately, Mr. Steve Fairbairn was only able to take them the first two days of term, and they had not the advantage of much coaching till the end, or they would have been a crew of outstanding merit. As it is, they have much to learn yet; but next year with six men of the present crew the Jesus boat should be one worthy of the best traditions of the College.

The light blue flag was hoisted with the red and black by Mr. P. M. Thornton, and the Master saw them go up as he sat in his carriage. It is a great happiness for all Jesus men to think that he still takes the keenest interest in the welfare of the College.

The second boat made three bumps and was somewhat unlucky in not making four, and Jesus has now two boats in the first seven—a thing unprecedented in our rowing annals. First Trinity in its palmy days had two boats in the first three, and this should be the aim of our Boat Club to attain. It is possible, but hardly conceivable, in 1913.

If reviewers are to be believed the volume of Jesus essays entitled The Parting of the Roads, has attained a marked success in the theological world. Curiously enough, excluding the Editor, who may be considered as the coach, the essayists are eight members of the College steered by an Honorary and recent Professorial Fellow, Dr. Inge; the Dean of St. Paul's being, like Mr. Skinner, who steered the first boat, the most useful member of the whole crew. The volume has received the highest commendation from the Athenæum, the Morning Post, the Westminster Review and the Times, and the sort of praise from the Guardian which a successful Jesus crew receives from the arbiters of the rowing world, that "praise with faint damns" which is praise indeed. The Expository Times devotes seven columns to an appreciative criticism, the Athenæum a page, and the Times two columns of its literary supplement. The last named review is written by an Oxford scholar of known eminence. He singles out for especial commendation Dr. Oesterley, Mr. H. G. Wood and Mr. B. T. D. Smith. The two latter essays he pronounces to be of "outstanding importance" and the whole work one of real importance. That a single College should have provided men to produce such a work is matter for congratulation, and the attempt successfully made is absolutely unprecedented in any older English University.

The following statistics show that in point of numbers the College continues to flourish. In October last, with an entry of seventy-one freshmen, the number of men in statu pupillari stood at two hundred and eleven, six less than in the preceding October. But counting those only who are in residence this term, the freshmen number seventy-one, the second year sixty-nine, the third year fifty, the fourth year undergraduates three; there are eight B.A.'s, and twenty-one Jesus men above that degree reside in Cambridge as members of the electoral roll, in addition to five residents who are not on the roll. Thus the total number of persons in statu pupillari is two hundred and one as compared with one hundred and ninety-nine, the figure in the May Term of 1911.

Obituary. Our Obituary List, happily shorter than has been the case in recent Reports, includes one of the oldest and one of the youngest members of the College. The death of Alan Wright, Scholar of the College, took place on June 15th, 1911. He and a friend, also a Cambridge undergraduate, were drowned while bathing on the coast of Norfolk. The news preceded by one day the announcement that he had obtained a second class in the Historical Tripos.

Robert MacMillan Dunlop, of the Danes' Hill, Hertford, died at Leeds on 4th September, 1911, aged 54. About a year after East House was left vacant by the death of the late Dean, Mr. Dunlop, leaving his former home in the north at Windermere, returned to his old College as tenant of East House. Shrewd in business matters, a keen sportsman, and the most genial of hosts, he lived during the ten years or more of his residence here in the friendliest relations with the Master and Fellows, and made not a few acquaintances among some of the leading undergraduates. Genuine regret was felt when he decided some years ago to remove to another residence near Hertford, where his Cambridge friends were always sure of a hearty welcome. His premature death which followed on an operation, came as a great grief last autumn to his many friends.

The Rev. Arthur Lewis Babington Peile, C.V.O., died in London, 19th September, 1911, aged 81. He was educated at Eton, and took his degree here in 1852. In 1862 he became Vicar of Holy Trinity, Ventnor, where he worked for 27 years, and was then appointed by Queen Victoria to the Mastership of the Royal Collegiate Hospital of St. Katharine, Regent's Park. He was the first President of the Queen Victoria Jubilee Institute for Nurses. An Honorary Chaplain to three successive Sovereigns, he was created a C.V.O. in 1908.

The Rev. Henry Homer died on 17th October, 1911, within a few days of completing his 92nd year. He came up to Cambridge from Rugby School, which he had entered under Dr. Arnold's predecessor. At Jesus he was a Rustat Scholar, and took his degree in 1843. Steadily refusing preferment, he was Curate-in-Charge at Barlestone, Leicestershire, for nearly fifty years, returning in 1900 to his native place, Rugby. He was a generous contributor to Church institutions in the town, and by his will has left a legacy of one hundred pounds to the Masters and Fellows of Jesus, to be used for College purposes.

The Rev. Henry Bodley Bromby, Honorary Canon of Bristol, died on December 20th, 1911, aged 71. Canon Bromby was a Rustat Scholar of the College, and took his degree in 1864. Ordained in the same year, he went out to Tasmania, of which his father had recently become the Bishop, as Curate of the Cathedral at Hobart. He was Dean of Hobart from 1877 to 1884, when he returned to England, and shortly afterwards became Vicar of St. John, Bethnal Green. From 1892 onwards he was Vicar of All Saints', Clifton, until he resigned in the early part of last year.

Fellowships. In the October term, G. G. Morris, B.A., Scholar of Trinity College, was elected to a Research Fellowship for three years. At Eton, Mr. Morris was Newcastle scholar, and his University career has been distinguished, his honours including the Charles Oldham Classical Scholarship, the Browne Medals in 1908 and 1909, and the Winchester Reading Prize in 1910; he was placed in Class I., Division I., of the Classical Tripos, Part I., in 1909, and in Class I. (with distinction, of Part II., of the same Tripos (Section A), in 1911. The subject of his research is the early English Drama.

In the same term the list of Honorary Fellows was increased by the name of Dr. Inge, Dean of St. Paul's, and more recently the College shewed its appreciation of the eminence of Mr. Charles Whibley in literature by electing him also to an Honorary Fellowship,

The approaching departure from Cambridge of another of our Honorary Fellows, Dr. A. J. Mason, Master of Pembroke, is universally regretted. Steps are being taken to secure a portrait of him to be hung in the Hall of that College, with which he has been associated as Master.

Mr. Howard, who has been an ideal Chaplain of the College, is now about to leave us and take up missionary work in India, which has all along been his ultimate intention. He takes with him the regrets and good wishes of every member of the College. His successor is the Rev. H. E. Wynn, B.A., who joined this College from Trinity Hall as a Lady Kay Theological scholar.

College Livings. The College living of Tewin, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Professor Nairne, has been accepted by the Rev. A. C. Vidler, Vicar of Swavesey; and the Rev. J. S. Sharp, formerly scholar of the College, has been elected to the Vicarage of Swavesey.

Honours. In 1911, First Classes were obtained in the various Triposes as follows: Mathematical Tripos, Part II., Wrangler, H. S. Jones, b*, with special distinction in Schedule B.: Part I., C. E. Jones; Classical, Part II., E. M. W. Tillyard; Part I., M. L. W. Laistner, in the third division; Natural Sciences, Part II., H. L. Cronk; Theological, Part II., P. Gardner-Smith, B.A.; H. E. Wynn, B.A., who was awarded the Evans Prize for Church History; Law, Part II., O. W. Darch, Part I., J. S. C. Reid.

E. M. W. Tillyard, B.A., has been elected to the Craven Studentship, and H. S. Jones, B.A., to the Isaac Newton Studentship. A. E. Aldous was mentioned as distinguished in the examination for the Bell Scholarships.

Scholarships. The following were elected to entrance scholarships in December last: E. J. Myddelton, Wellingborough Grammar School, £60 for Mathematics; A. F. Akhurst, Merchant Taylors' School, London, £40 for Mathematics; R. L. Murray, St. Edmund's School, Canterbury, £80 for Classics (Rustat); N. C. Hamilton, St. Olaye's School, £60 for Classics (Rustat); H. A. R. Crookham, Felsted School, £40 for Classics (Rustat); R. J. Wait, Oundle School, £40 for Natural Science; B. L. Manning, Caistor Grammar School, £80 for History.

On the results of the College Examinations in June, 1911, E. M. Aron and H. B. Salmon were elected Scholars.

A Lady Kay Theological Scholarship was awarded to W. M. Peacock.

Exhibitions. Entrance Exhibitions were awarded in December to J. B. Kirkpatrick, Marlborough College, £30 for Classics; C. E. Newham, Nottingham High School, £30 for Natural Science.

Degrees. In the course of the year B. K. Nutman, M.B., has proceeded to the degree of M.D. Up to the present time of writing eighteen members of the College have taken their M.A. degrees.

The Vice-Master has been appointed to examine for the Charles Oldham Shakespeare Scholarships, and Mr. Abbott examined for the Bell Scholarships.

Books. Among books, published or shortly to be published, by past or present members of the College, we have noticed, in the course of the year, the following:—

Memorial of Cranmer. The medallion portrait of Cranmer, executed by Mr. Bruce Joy, is to be set up in the South Transept of the Chapel, and will be unveiled by the Visitor of the College, the Bishop of Ely, at a Service to be held on June 13th. It is hoped that the Master of Pembroke and the Dean of St. Paul's will take part in the proceedings.

The rooms, reputed to have been inhabited by Coleridge, at the bottom of staircase D, have recently been converted into a Library and Reading Room auxiliary to the College Library. It will be known as the Shield Library in commemoration of the fact that the money for the alterations and fittings has been largely drawn from a bequest left to the College by the late Bursar, Mr. Hugh Shield.

The recent bequest of the Rev. Henry Homer will probably be devoted to some improvement in the decoration of the East end of the Chapel.

Electric light will, it is expected, be installed throughout the College in the course of the coming Long Vacation.

Rowing. Last year's Report dealt with the then recent May races in which our three boats finished third, tenth, and twenty-eighth on the river.

It was decided that the Old Jesus Eight, which defeated the Belgians, should enter for the Grand Challenge Cup at Henley. Unfortunately, two of the crew (H. M. Goldsmith and H. C. Hudson) were unable to row, so J. H. Goldsmith and L. A. Pattinson were taken from the May Boat as substitutes. This weakened the May Boat considerably, and as several people creaked just before the races, the crew was never able to get properly together. Jesus drew First Trinity in the first round of the Thames Cup, and were beaten fairly easily.

The Old Jesus Eight was again coached by S. M. Bruce, the old Trinity Hall blue, who had coached them for their race against the Belgians. They entered for the Grand, and drew a bye the first day. The next day they met Thames R.C., and had no difficulty. In the semi-finals they met London R.C. This was not such an easy race; but, although London stuck to it gamely to the end, Jesus never looked like losing, and won fairly comfortably. The race with Magdalen College, Oxford, in the final, was a great deal closer than would appear from the official verdict. Jesus led by a quarter of a length at the end of the Island, and kept the lead to Fawley. From this point Magdalen went away, and eventually won by $2\frac{1}{2}$ lengths. Their victory was undoubtedly due to their greater weight, and perhaps also to greater racing experience. The Magdalen eight was generally admitted to be one of the finest crews ever seen at Henley.

The light four came up early in October and began practice at once. The order was :—

- J. Simson (bow & steers)
- 2 L. A. Pattinson
- 3 J. H. Goldsmith
- J. H. Jerwood (stroke)

S. Fairbairn came up on one or two days at the beginning of term and coached the crew. They were then taken in hand by H. J. Shields, later by S. E. Swann, the Trinity Hall Blue, and finally by C. A. Skinner. About a week before the races Goldsmith had the misfortune to strain himself, and it was thought at the time that he might not be able to row. However, he was only absent for a day. Added to this, Simson was suffering from blood poisoning; but the climax came two days before the races, when Jerwood crocked. It seemed to be predestined that the four should not row. After serious consideration, however it was decided that the crew should not scratch, but that Pattinson should be moved to stroke, and S. T. Gray called in at 2.

Jesus had drawn First Trinity in the second round, both crews having had byes the day before. Our four almost held its own over the first part of the course, and at the Plough was only about a length down. But from this point First Trinity gradually went up, and eventually won by about sixty-five yards. Jesus stuck to it to the end, but the result was only to be expected. The most remarkable feature of the race was Pattinson's spurt after the Railway Bridge, which gained about two lengths.

The only Jesus representative in the Colquhoun Sculls was L. A. Pattinson. It will be remembered that he was beaten in the semi-final last year by half a second by S. E. Swann, the ultimate winner. In the first round he beat C. F. Burnand, the First Trinity blue, and in the second round H. T. Day (L.M.B.C.). In the final he met R. W. M. Arbuthnot, the 'Varsity President. Although in the preceding heats Pattinson had done considerably faster times than his opponent, the result of this race was doubtful, as while Pattinson had had two gruelling races, the President had never been fully extended. In addition, the wind, which on the two previous occasions had been "head," now changed right round, and became "following," which favoured Arbuthnot. On setting out for the starting point, Pattinson had a piece of very bad luck. Apparently the guard of his left swivel had not been properly fastened, and when holding up his boat his scull slipped out, and he upset. Many thought that this would materially affect his chances, but although he had to borrow dry clothes, and it took him some time to get circulation back, it did not seem to make much difference to his sculling.

Both scullers got off well, and at the Ditch Pattinson seemed to be about a length up. This was increased to two or three lengths at the Plough. In the Reach Arbuthnot made valiant attempts to draw level, but Pattinson, sculling strongly, with a sound leg drive and a hard finish, kept the lead and won by about two lengths. The time, which was 7 min. 52 secs., was exceedingly fast, only 6 secs. over record. Pattinson sculled with great determination, and thoroughly deserved his win. Arbuthnot also sculled well and pluckily.

We had three representatives in the 'Varsity Trials, J. H. Goldsmith and J. C. Holmes at 3 in their respective boats, and L. E. Ridley as cox.

The winning boat in the College Trials was stroked by H. Burnaby. H. D. B. Harford and G. Davy won the Farquharson Pairs; J. C. Holmes the College Sculls; and H. Baillieu the Freshmen's Sculls.

In the Lent Term the first two boats came up a week early, and immediately began going out twice daily. As was anticipated by the authorities, it was soon seen that there was plenty of material for a good boat, though it combined rather too much crudeness with its strength. After trying Burnaby, Atkin and Simson at stroke, Fairbairn was at last tried, and it became evident that he was the man for that position. What would have been the ultimate order of the boat was then settled upon, had it not suffered from illness, in conjunction with most other athletic clubs. It may be mentioned here that Holmes and Simson, the only May colours eligible for the Lents, were both prevented from taking part in them by illness, the latter crocking only two days before the races started. When Holmes disappeared, Baillieu went 7, and Fisher was moved up from the second boat. Steve Fairbairn put in an appearance about a fortnight before the races, and, as usual, improved the boat marvellously.

Our troubles, however, were not over: bow and 7 had to rest for a few days, and consequently the boat had to go out with two substitutes. Both boats suffered two days before the races, as Gould, who had been rowing 4 in the second boat, had to take Simson's place at 6 in the first. It can hardly be said that they were well together, but occasionally they hit it off and drove their blades through well.

Contrary to expectation, Lady Margaret made no impression on us at first, in fact we had gained about half-a-length by the Gut, and increased the distance till at Ditton we were two-and-half lengths clear. Lady Margaret fell victims to First in the Long Reach, and our boat paddled over the rest of the way easily. On the second day, we again led. After rounding Grassy with two lengths separating the boats, we let the stroke down a little. This was due to the general inexperience of the men who had not raced before. We may mention that there were four freshmen in the boat, and one second-year man who had not rowed at all before last term. First kept their stroke going, and, rowing about five strokes a minute faster, gradually wore us down until we had to acknowledge defeat at the Railway Bridge.

On the Friday we determined to risk nothing, and prepared to go over the whole course. It is not usual for a Jesus boat to rush another. We generally reckon to make a bump somewhere towards the end of the Reach, if at all. So on Friday, after getting an excellent start, we soon settled down to a long steady stroke. As a matter of fact, we went up from the very start, and gained ground with every stroke. Round Grassy about three-quarters of a length separated the boats. This was diminished all along the Plough Reach, till at Ditton there was very little daylight between the boats. We continued to go up, and just round Ditton Ridley found no difficulty in steering well into the Trinity boat. The rowing on this occasion was really excellent. Perhaps we may here point out this as an example of how much better men row when they settle down to a long steady stroke, than when anything in the nature of a "hustle" is introduced.

On the last day we got away to a fair start, and at Grassy were two or three yards outside our starting distance. After rounding the corner, however, First came up considerably. Opposite the Plough little more than three-quarters of a length separated the boats. The Trinity men were unable to improve on this. We took our boat into Ditton well, and when the corner had been negotiated found we had regained our starting distance, which we maintained to the finish, rowing at a slightly slower stroke all down the Reach.

The second and third boats made three bumps each. They would probably have got their oars had they not started with good boats in front of them.

Queens', starting in front of the second boat, found great difficulty in evading being bumped, especially at Ditton, where but a few feet saved them. They ultimately succeeded in getting over, though if the second boat had not been weakened during the last week by having to give up two men to the first boat, it is more than probable that Queens' would have been caught.

On Thursday the second boat lowered the colours of Pembroke II. at Ditton, and on the third day bumped Lady Margaret II. without difficulty. On the Saturday Clare I. had to submit, so we are given to understand, somewhere near the little bridge. This must be nearly a record for a First Division boat.

The third boat had bad luck in starting behind Downing, which ascended six places. There was not much to choose between the boats, as we were hardly outside our starting distance from Downing when the latter made their over-bump. On the three following days the third boat found making bumps quite easy. They did not have to row beyond the Gut. Their victories were Hall III., Selwyn II. and Emmanuel III.

* Rowed 7 on Saturday.

For the Forster-Fairbairn pairs, S. T. Gray and J. H. Jerwood were defeated in the final heat by the Third Trinity pair.

The Clinker Four consisted of H. J. Boyton (bow), R. Gould, G. A. Fisher, G. H. Straker, (stroke), and L. E. Ridley (cox), and was beaten by Pembroke.

J. H. Goldsmith was given his blue and rowed 5 in the University Boat, which was again coxed by C. A. Skinner.

The work for the May races was begun early in the present term, and the first boat has been advised by various authorities. Steve Fairbairn has put in some most welcome appearances, and so has Eric Fairbairn.

The Dean has done his part and at present, with the races in near prospect, the Rev. F. H. Jerwood has charge. The crew was by no means settled on at once and some changes have been made not very long before the races. However, it is perhaps safe to prophesy that the order of the first boat will be :—

FIRST BOAT.

S. T. Gray, Bow.
G. H. Straker.
G. A. Fisher.
K. Atkin.
J. H. Goldsmith.
R. Gould.
L. A. Pattinson.
J. H. Jerwood, Stroke.
C. A. Skinner, Cox.

As we go to press, we are able to chronicle that the First Boat bumped Pembroke on the first night and, after pressing First Trinity very hard the next two nights, bumped them and went Head on the Saturday. The second boat made three, and the third two bumps, so that the three boats end up Head, seventh, and twenty-sixth on the River. The crew of the First Boat was as given above.

SECOND BOAT.

H. D. B. Harford, Bow.
2 J. Simson.
3 C. R. Hobbs.
4 J. R. A. Stroyan.
5 H. L. Baillieu.
6 J. C. Holmes.
7 H. J. Boyton.

5 O. W. M. Shelton.
6 G. E. G. Forman.
7 J. D. Maitland.

Cricket.

We started the season with seven old colours in residence, and at the present time of writing, with only three more matches to play, have only lost twice, to the Crusaders and the Wellingborough Masters, against whom we were unable to take over our full team. Of eighteen matches played, we have won eight and drawn eight. The large number of freshmen of unusually good promise is a very gratifying feature and augurs well for coming years. F. S. Gough-Calthorpe, A. S. Edge, G. A. Fairbairn, A. C. Straker and H. G. Vincent were our representatives in the Freshmen's Match; Calthorpe has been playing regularly for the 'Varsity, and Fairbairn appeared in the match against Yorkshire. P. J. Richardson and D. Smythe played in the Seniors' Match, and the latter has been frequently tried as a fast bowler for the 'Varsity. N. J. Holloway has been in good form and in the Yorkshire second innings delivered sixteen overs for nineteen runs. The Crusaders defeated us by six wickets, Jesus scoring 263 and the Crusaders 265 in the first innings; Vincent for us made 34 and 50. The Trinity match, which was played this year on the Close, had an exciting finish. Trinity started off with 332 for nine wickets and declared. Jesus replied with 345. In the second innings Trinity declared after making 180 for six wickets, but Jesus hit off 170 for the same number of wickets in time to win, to which result Fairbairn contributed 50, and Richardson 76 not out. The match with the Northern Nomads was drawn. L. G. Colbeck made 109 out of their first innings total of 416, while R. S. Stafford contributed 110 and A. S. Edge 109 to our 421.

Rugby Football. Though this season's side cannot be said to have been as good as that of last year, it certainly proved itself above the average. We were most unfortunate in the matter of "crops," particularly as they were our best players. The total result was, played 13 matches, won 9, lost 3, and drawn 1. After a promising start, the team was left without several of its most promising members, and for some matches showed a lack of energy and go. But with the return of the "crops" the side improved immensely. For the second year running we beat Trinity, Oxford, this time by 18 to 6, and though our opponents unfortunately were not quite at full strength, this would not have affected the result. The forwards, when at full strength, improved into quite a good pack. The Captain, with a little more weight, would doubtless have got into the 'Varsity side. Behind the scrum, M. S. Ray was the mainstay of the team, both in attack and defence, but the rest of the back division was disorganised owing to someone always being away.

In the Freshmen's match we were represented by C. J. Penny, R. E. Bullen, I. A. Mack, and H. S. Allison; in the Seniors' by R. S. Stafford, C. G. Tomlin, M. S. Ray, P. Holman, and N. J. Holloway. A. E. Kitching captained the University Team.

Athletics. In accordance with the recently introduced system of Inter-Collegiate competition, the College Sports and the match against Caius were held simultaneously on November 14th and 15th at Fenner's. On the first day Caius gained a long lead, and though Jesus was much more successful on the second day, the lead could not be wiped out, and Caius won by 62 points to 38. Individually, G. L. Clark ran well to win the half-mile and the quarter, and A. C. Straker, who had jumped so finely in the Freshmen's Sports, won the high jump and the hurdles. The long jump was strange, $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches covering four jumpers. The results were:—

The annual contest with Trinity, Oxford, took place this year at Oxford, and resulted in a draw of five events to each side ; we won the Hundred, Hammer, Long and High Jumps, and Hurdles. On this occasion, the Hammer was thrown for us by our late President, H. A. C. Goodwin, who, we were glad to see, entered for this event in the recent trials preliminary to the Olympic competition, obtaining third place, though not reaching the distance to which he had attained in practice.

In the Sports against Oxford we were represented in the High Jump by A. C. Straker.

Association Football. In spite of the good example of energy set by A. S. Mackay, as Captain, the performance of the XI. this season has been poor. At the beginning of the October term there was plenty of good material, and we were fortunate in finding a pair of useful backs and an excellent goalkeeper among the Freshmen, but we were often unable to turn out our full side. In League games we beat Clare early in the season, but afterwards suffered badly from the constant absence of our regular players owing to injuries, as well as because the Secretary was away in the Lent Term. We underwent a run of defeats until the close of the Lent Term, when we drew our last two matches. The goal-keeper was really good, the backs and halves worked very hard, but the weakness of the team lay in the forward line: excellent in mid-field, the majority of the forwards failed in shooting. D. Smythe played in the Seniors' match, and A. S. Edge and A. C. Straker in the Freshmen's. We were again represented against Oxford by B. S. Evers.

Lawn Tennis. We have again to confess to a poor record for the season, and are only able to chronicle one victory, against Selwyn, in the League matches; nor were we successful in our visit to Oxford, where we played Hertford. J. E. Dexter appeared in a Trial game of the C. U. Club.

Hockey. At the beginning of the season the team seemed likely to be good and was expected to finish at least fairly high up in the League. The back division was quite sound, though by no means brilliant, R. M. Dexter at half-back being a tower of strength. The excellence of the halves in defence was counter-balanced by mediocrity in passing. At first the weak spot in the team lay in the forward line which, however, was handicapped by the absence of the Captain, A. H. Vann, who obtained his blue. At the end of a very successful season, our headship in the League depended on the possibility of our tying, at least, in the last match against Trinity. This we did and so secured the headship by one point.

The match with B.N.C., Oxford, took place this year on the close and was won by us, 4 to 1, after a rather scrambling game in wet weather.

Lacrosse. N. J. Holloway again captained the College Lacrosse team, which was undefeated in any of its matches and thus retained the Inter-Collegiate Cup. In addition to the old half blues, N. J. Holloway, G. R. Vick and P. Holman, we were represented in the Inter-University match by B. P. Ayre.

C.U.O.T.C. The Jesus or "I" Company is some fifty-eight strong and is commanded by 2nd Lieut. A. S. Mackay with 2nd Lieut. C. Furze under him. 2nd Lieut. D. R. Wilson has been lent to "A" Company, which he commands.

Rifle Club. The Rifle Club is suffering from some shortage of Freshmen members. D. R. Wilson is Captain and G. M. Bradley Secretary of the team, of which the other members are W. B. R. King, P. Holman, H. W. C. Lloyd and K. Atkin.

Societies. The College Societies have flourished as usual, the "Natives" presided over by J. H. Goldsmith and the "Rhadegunds" by A. E. Kitching. The "Stratford" reads Shakespeare under A. S. Mackay. C. W. G. Eady and H. A. W. Blayden have held the presidency of the "Roosters," who in the October term had a most successful Visitors' debate, opened by the Dean. The discussions of the "Farragoes" are presided over by J. H. Jerwood. C. W. G. Eady, by the way, was the author of a play, "The Widow-Maker," which was produced with pronounced success at the Cambridge Theatre in the Lent Term. The Musical Society and Historical Society, which were revived last year, have flourished, and the Theological and Essay Society have listened to papers and addresses from distinguished visitors, such as Canon Lonsdale Wragg and Professor Kennett, and welcomed other members of the College this term to hear an excellent paper from Mr. Morris on Swinburne.

Some half dozen Jesus men have spoken at Union debates in the course of the year, and H. D. Barnard was elected on to the Committee at the end of the Lent and Easter Terms. Mr. Elliott has been Librarian of the Union throughout the year.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

The Eighth Annual General Meeting of the Society was held at the Imperial Restaurant, Regent Street (by the kindness of Mr. Oddenino) at 5.15 on Tuesday, December 12th, 1911. The Rev. J. Nelson Burrows was voted to the chair. The Hon. Treasurer and Secretary were selected for the ensuing year.

The Right Rev. the Bishop of Southwell, Messrs. E. E. Wild, W. J. Sanderson, and F. G. Hudson, were elected to the Committee in place of Rev. J. D. Dunlop, }^a Messrs. C. E. A. Castellain, B. C. Hartley, and H. M. Goldsmith, who retired by rotation.

The accounts as published in the Eighth Annual Report were considered and passed.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman was carried unanimously.

ANNUAL DINNER.

The Fourteenth Annual Jesus College Dinner was held at the Imperial Restaurant (Oddenino's), Regent Street, W., on Monday, July 3rd, 1911. Mr. Percy M. Thornton occupied the chair. Mr. A. Conway Osborne Morgan, son of the Master of the College, was present as the guest of the Society, and in replying to the toast of his health, spoke in a manner which compelled the admiration of all present, and gave every promise of a brilliant future. There were 75 present, an increase of 9 over the number in 1910.

The Fifteenth Annual Dinner will take place at the Imperial Restaurant (Oddenino's), Regent Street, W. (entrance in Glasshouse Street), on Monday, July 8th, 1912, at 7.45 for 8 p.m. Mr. Harold Cox has kindly promised to preside.

CORRESPONDENCE.

4, ASHLEY GARDENS, S.W.,

June, 1912

DEAR SIR,

Last November, Rev. Canon Foakes Jackson, at the request of the Committee, kindly approached the College Tutors and Fellows, asking them to consent to the inclusion in the College Bill of the subscription to the Society if requested to do so by men going out of residence. Mr. Gray subsequently wrote to me consenting to this procedure. Believing, as I do, that this will ensure the permanence of this Society, I wish the members of the Society to be informed of this step that they may appreciate the kindness of the Fellows, and to know how much the Society owes now to them for its future success. Hitherto, the proportion of men joining on leaving the College has been smaller than one could wish. To show the effect of this move, I may say that Mr. C. A. Skinner has canvassed the Seniors and succeeded in getting 54 men to join the Society this term, a much greater number than in any previous year, and I am sure the Society will be very grateful to him for all the trouble he has taken in the matter.

Yours truly,

HENRY MENZIES,

Hon. Sec.
